

Index – Gurulé Families

The purpose of this outline is to use it as a search function. Other than the person's name, their year of birth, and their spouse (if married), all other excess information and source material has been removed to make it easier to search for your Gurulé family.

Each generation is indented → for example, all children with #2 by their names are children of the couple with #1 by their name

These families stop about 1900 (1910 at the latest). Again, the purpose is to use as a search function. Once you find the right family, then you can go to the below link, check if it's the right family, and then you now have access to their baptism, marriage, death, census records, etc. :
